According to the mystics,
“The Window Frames of Transforming Light”
from the Upper Level of King David’s Chamber Complex.

It is virtually unknown today, but there are actually two sites for King David's Shrine. There is the main shrine chamber with the burial monument on the ground floor and directly above this chamber is a smaller and more intimate one containing a similar monument.

The placement of this second monument is based upon the notion that the spiritual energy of a burial monument rises upward indefinitely, towards heaven (see Mishnah Ohalot 7:1).

As a result, someone standing near the upper monument is truly standing in the presence of King David's Memorial Shrine. The upper chamber was referred to as the "Upper Shrine" or the "Room of the Holy Spirit".

According to the traditions of Mount Zion, the Upper Shrine in ancient times was reserved for unique saints and visionaries. They performed deep meditations there and received holy visions of the Divine Throne and the four Living Entities who carry it, as described at the beginning of the Book of Ezekiel. These meditations were based upon the Kabbalistic teaching that these four aspects of the Chariot are actually the transformed spiritual essences of the Patriarchs: Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

One might ask since there are only three Patriarchs, isn't the Divine Chariot missing a fourth support? The answer is that King David joins the triad of the patriarchs, becoming the fourth pillar by giving his soul to the Divine Throne. Consequently, the best place to receive a vision of the Divine Throne is at King David's upper chamber shrine monument. There is an antechamber where in ancient times these saints and visionaries would prepare themselves before entering the Upper Shrine to behold the Throne Vision.

This antechamber has three large arch shaped windows. The ancient sages would see the light streaming in through these windows and visualize the transformation of the three patriarchs into the radiating glory of the Divine Presence. Once filled with light and joy, the Sages would enter the Upper Shrine and receive the complete Vision, as the light streamed in through the fourth window - the window of the sacred chamber itself. In the merit of King David's contrition and repentance, wise mystics would behold the Throne of Glory and perceive how the Divine Light fills the entire universe.

Over time, the four windows became associated with the four characteristics of the Enlightened Mind:
Wisdom, Understanding, love of G-d and Awe of G-d.
In Hebrew we say: "Choch'ma, Bi'na, Ah'ha'vah and Yirah.
All human beings search for the benefits that spiritual light can bring to life. These Window Frames symbolize the light of spiritual transformation.
Prayer, with deep faith in the presence of these artifacts from Mount Zion, can help transform the negative influences in one's life into joyous positive energy, just as the Patriarchs and King David were transformed from mortal beings into eternal aspects of the Divine Throne.
Over the many years, these hand-crafted Wooden Window Frames absorbed the spiritual energy and essence of sincere prayers from the endless stream of pilgrims who reverently ascended Holy Mount Zion to partake of its many blessings.
These large hand crafted and uniquely shaped Wooden Window Frames have been in place for hundreds of years.
Now they are presented to you for contemplation.
You can observe that we have listed the four characteristics of enlightenment: Wisdom, Understanding, Knowledge, and Love and Awe in the hope that you will find these noble ideas entering your own life to bring about a blessed transformation.
The Window Frames correspond to the Sublime Element of Light and to the blessing of Spiritual Transformation.

"May the Lord who made heaven and earth bless you from Zion" (Psalm 134:3)
